

SCHOOLS TO POUR OUT GRADUATES

Commencements in Washington's Public and Private Institutions Will Be Held Soon.

Commencement season is at hand in Washington. Between now and the first part of June some thousands of young men and women will be given diplomas from the numerous private and public schools, colleges and universities in the National Capital. Numerous dignitaries, including Vice President Marshall, will make addresses to the graduates and baccalaureate sermons will be preached by eminent divines.

Joeksmiths are busy polishing up the sweet girl graduate gowns and getting ready to make remarks about essays on "Forward and Upward" and "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy." Jewelers and fashionable dressmakers are looking forward to the prospect for graduation gowns will be as pretty and expensive as of yore.

Georgetown University's commencement will be in three parts as customary. Two hundred young men will receive the baccalaureate of law at Polk's Theater the afternoon of June 2. The ceremony of the college will be on June 3 at the department of the university will have its commencement at 8 o'clock. In the same building on June 13 the College of Medicine of Georgetown will hold commencement.

Other Departments.
All departments and colleges of George Washington University will hold commencement June 11 at a theater to be announced. Large classes will be graduated by the law, medical, and academic departments. A baccalaureate sermon will be preached the prospective graduates on the Sunday previous by the Rev. Charles H. Dodge, of Baltimore. The baccalaureate sermon will be given on the evening of May 29, and on the morning of June 1 the numerous fashionable private schools in the district will be busy with commencement exercises.

At National Park Seminary at Forest Park a week of festivities is on the program. Commencement will be May 29 on Saturday, May 31, the annual field day sports will be conducted by the young women. Several plays are to be given during the week by the societies of the school, and on the evening of the 30th the alumni dance will be held.

The senior class on the morning of May 31 will plant an English oak on the campus in honor of the anniversary of the signing of the Treaty of Ghent. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by the Rev. U. G. B. Pierce on Sunday, May 25. The class day exercises take place on Wednesday, May 22, and the annual recital by the students in the musical department of this fashionable school will be held on the afternoon of the 23d.

Washington Seminary.
Washington Seminary, the small-wooded school, will have its commencement on May 22 at 11 a. m. The baccalaureate sermon is to be preached the coming Sunday afternoon by the Rev. Charles Wood, pastor of the Church of the Covenant. Friends of the school are invited to this service.

The baccalaureate sermon to the boys graduating from the National Cathedral School will be preached by the Rev. Alfred Harding, bishop of Washington, at 10 o'clock on May 21. St. Alban on Sunday, June 2. The commencement will take place the next day. Athletic games will take place on the Saturday previous.

Commencement of the National Cathedral School of the Girls will take place a week earlier. The exercises will be the last while Mrs. Harbour Walker will go to the Philippines to assist Bishop Trent by conduct of the school. Miss Jessie G. McDonald is to be the new principal. In the commencement program is included a play to be given on the 23d.

Palmer College has obtained Vice President Marshall to deliver its commencement address on May 23. The program will include a play, a musical, and a play.

INSURANCE FIRMS COMPROMISE CASE

Southern Building Litigation Is Settled Outside of Alexandria Circuit Court—Confederate Veterans Receive Cannon to Be Used as Decorations.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU. ALEXANDRIA, VA., MAY 12. When the circuit court of Alexandria city opened today to proceed with the application of a number of stockholders of the Southern Building Corporation, former owners of the Southern building in Washington, for a receiver and annulment of the sale of the building a year ago to the two fire insurance companies of Washington, a letter was read from Sale, Mann & Tyler, of Petersburg, attorneys representing the plaintiffs, stating that a compromise had been reached between their clients and the defendants in the suit, and that the suit be dismissed. Judge Thornton agreed to this and an order will be entered to this effect.

R. E. Camp, of Confederate Veterans, received the two twelve-pound bronze cannon and forty cannon balls which were donated by the War Department to the city of Alexandria under the authority of a recent act of Congress. The guns were shipped from the Water-Ville, N. Y. Arsenal. No details of the sale of the building have been reached as to where the cannon will be placed in the city, and they are temporarily located in the yard of the camp on Prince street.

The chamber of commerce will hold a meeting tonight in their building, corner King and Washington streets.

The funeral of William Henson, who died last Wednesday, was held yesterday afternoon from the Arlington Presbyterian Church. Interment was made in Falls Church.

Thomas Buckley, fifty-eight years old, died Saturday night at the city almshouse. The funeral was held this afternoon from Wheatley's undertaking establishment, 1000 N. E. street, by the Rev. L. F. Kelly.

Coroner S. B. Moore yesterday afternoon ordered the removal of the body of James Ford, colored, from a camp ment address and present the diplomas. The exercises will be on the evening of May 22.

Mt. Vernon Seminary.
Mt. Vernon Seminary (Mrs. Somers' school) will have its commencement May 22, five days before commencement takes place at the Bristol School. At the Bristol, class day exercises will be held the evening of Tuesday, the 27th, and the annual French play will be acted on the 28d.

Washington College of Law, of which Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey is dean, will graduate thirteen young women and eleven men on the evening of May 23 at Continental Memorial Hall. Senator Townsend will deliver the address. The class is double in size that of last year's, and is the largest in the history of the college.

Washington College, of which Flournoy Menefee is director, will have its commencement the evening of May 23. The annual play will be staged May 22, the concert will be given on May 24, the baccalaureate sermon will be preached on May 25, and class day exercises will be held on the morning of commencement day.

Girls finishing this year at Mrs. Ma-deira's school will receive their diplomas on June 5. The exercises will take place at Raucher's.

Commencement at the Catholic University of America will take place on the morning of June 11, in the assembly room in McMahon Hall. The program of commencement is not yet formulated in detail, but the impressive academic procession of doctors, in their gowns and hoods, across the campus undoubtedly will take place this year, as heretofore.

ADVENTISTS FLOCK TO A CITY OF TENTS

Delegates Gather From All Parts of World for Twenty-four Day Conference.

With delegates of the different conferences of the creed from all parts of the world already housed in the city of tents that has gone up within the past few days at the sect's headquarters at Takoma Park, and other delegates arriving with every hour, preparations for the thirty-eighth session of the general conference of Seventh Day Adventists which is to open on Thursday morning, are about completed.

In the city of 600 tents 1,000 persons will be sheltered for the conference, which will last twenty-four days. Delegates are even here from Africa, China, and the Philippines.

The first meeting of the conference session will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, at which time every delegate is expected to be in his seat.

RESINOL CLEARS AWAY PIMPLES
And Blackheads. Restores Health to Tightly Complexions.

Pimples and blackheads disappear, unsightly complexion becomes clean, clear, and healthy, and hair health and beauty usually follow the regular use of Resinol Soap and an occasional application of Resinol Ointment. These soothing, healing preparations do their work easily, quickly and at little cost, when even the most expensive and complicated "beauty treatments" utterly fail.

The nearest drugstore is sure to have Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. Why not get some today? You can't begin too soon to get rid of those ugly, embarrassing complexion blemishes.

The Resinol medication is so gentle, yet so effective, that it can be used freely on the tenderest skin. Doctors throughout the country have prescribed Resinol for eighteen years. You can test it free by writing to Dept. 20-S, Resinol, Baltimore, Md., for a generous trial.—Adv.
